Afghanistan by Choice

Film Screening & Discussion with

Baktash Ahadi

was born in Kabul, lived as a refugee in Pakistan and grew up in the United States. He served as a translator for Afghanistan by Choice, which interweaves the lives of five Afghans who are making the choice to stay, leave on a special visa, or plan to leave Afghanistan illegally. This film serves as a portrait of how it feels to grapple with this decision day-to-day.

February 6 | 5:30 PM | HJ Patterson Hall Atrium
Free & Open to the Public | Refreshments Provided