

Perceptions and Images of the U.S. - China Relationship from Both Sides: A Journalist's Point of View

Professor Wenxiang Gong, Peking University

* * * * *

Thursday, October 11, 2018
3:30 - 5 p.m.
St. Mary's Hall / Language House
University of Maryland

U.S.-China issues at different stages of history have created varied concepts of state image, from interdisciplinary perspectives to cross-cultural vantage points to international relationships. What major factors would and should influence the construction of state images? Are stereotypes part of the game? What is the role of the media? Are there consequences to state image?

Co-sponsored by:
The Confucius Institute and the Department of History
University of Maryland